

South for Sikh Religious Tourism

South for Sikh religious tourism of Pakistan is not much known to yatrees whereas it is full of rich history and abandoned heritage sites like Baba Bhullay Shah and many other Gurdwaras of Pehli Badshahi. We have started taking yatrees on the footsteps of Guru Nanak Badshah, doing darshan yatra of Gurdwara Sri Chota Nanakiana Sahib at Depalpur (used to be capital of Punjab). Then we go to Pak Pattan to pay homage to Darbar Hazrat Baba Farid Shakarganj. At Pak Pattan there is also Gurdwara Tibba Nanaksar Sahib where Shlok of Baba Farid were handed over to Guru Nanak. Walking on Gurus trail we reach Gurdwara Nanaksar where Guru Nanak stayed right in front of Harappa site (the oldest settlement of Indus Civilization). We explore Harappa culture and take this opportunity to research why Guru Nanak stayed there. Continuing on the footsteps of Guru Nanak we reach Gurdwara Tulamba Sahib Jee (then Haveli Sajjan Thag).

Walking on Gurus trail we reach Gurdwara Nanaksar where Guru Nanak stayed right in front of Harappa site (the oldest settlement of Indus Civilization). We explore Harappa culture and take this opportunity to research why Guru Nanak stayed there. Continuing on the footsteps of Guru Nanak we reach Gurdwara Tulamba Sahib Jee (then Haveli Sajjan Thag) at Makhdumpur Pakhoran. Finally we reach Multan for darshan yatra of Gurdwara Tharra sahib where Guru Nanak stayed for exchange of views with the famous saints of Multan.

All other regions are equally important for yatra but southern region is neglected that needs attention from the pilgrims and of course from Pakistan Government side. Development of religious tourism in this region will open the doors of south Punjab to the prosperity.

